ADVERTISEMENT.

WHEREVER more than one of any surname occurs, as in Brown, Smith, Williams, &c. they are placed in the following Manner: First, such as are in Partnership, and then the others according to the Alphabetical Order of their Christian Names. The Courts Alleys, Streets, &c. of little Note are generally described by their Situation near some well-known Street or Place.

As this Pamphlet already contains above Nine Thousand Names, and is more in quantity than any other of the same price, printed in Great Britain, the Publisher hopes that will be admitted as a sufficient apology for not following such advice for the improvement of the work as would encrease its bulk; as well as a satisfactory reason why some Trades and Professions are not displayed so amply as desired.

✍ Alterations sent in writing before Michaelmas, to No. 77, Fleet-Street, will be duly attended to.

The Second Edition of

An ABRIDGEMENT of BYROM'S UNIVERSAL ENGLISH SHORT-HAND.

When at Cambridge, Mr. Byrom had invented a new System of Short-hand, which for beauty and legibility has obtained great praise from the best judges in the principles of that useful art. This he first began to teach professionally at Manchester, and afterwards pursued the same employment on the greater theatre of London. Amongst his pupils were several persons of rank and quality, one of whom was Lord Stanhope, afterwards the celebrated Earl of Chesterfield.
